

DREADFUL MORTALITY—In the township of Harland, Huron county, the mortality is raging with great malignity. In one school district, occupying a small ridge hilltop, a tenth of the heating sheet part of the township, there have been 26 deaths within a few weeks—one out of six of the population on. Hardly a family has escaped, and in many there have been three or four deaths. The duration of the sickness is usually five or six days, but medical skill and care are unavailable. A physician of the neighborhood informs us that the disease appears to be contagious. It prevails in the sardine region near the Vermilion river, quite generally, but with varying severity. Losin county was similarly affected last year, but during the present season the incendiary efforts to urged it, except, while in those which escaped a year since, it now prevails.

IMPORTANT SUIT—The Bunker Hill Aurora states that Mr. Haskell of that city has commenced a suit at law to obtain a possession of a large portion of the town of Yarmouth, Nova Scotia, which he claims as an heir of his grandfather, who emigrated from Marblehead, Mass., before the American Revolution, and bought the land of the British Government, and died in possession of the same; but the land was wrongfully kept by his widow, and descended to her children by a subsequent marriage, to the exclusion of the issue of his first marriage, who were then in that country, and to whom it rightfully belonged. Yarmouth is a flourishing port of entry on the western extremity of Nova Scotia, and contains about five thousand inhabitants.

We learn officially that Edward C. Dale, Esq., has been appointed Treasurer of the U. S. Bank in Philadelphia, in the place of James R. Snowden, Esq., removed. Mr. Dale is a son of the late Commodore Dale, and is a gentleman of great popularity among his fellow citizens, and of the most elevated character. His appointment will give the highest satisfaction to our Whig friends.
